PROFILE

Visual artist specializing in figurative oil painting and digital illustration.

My practice explores emotional depth, atmosphere, and visual narrative across traditional and digital media.

Exhibited and recognized internationally, I continue to evolve through independent projects and ongoing artistic research.

EXPERIENCE

Visual artist and independent creative professional 2000–present

Over 25 years of artistic experience. I began my career as a decorative artist while developing my painting practice. I am currently focusing on figurative oil painting and digital art, and I am actively participating in international art competitions and online exhibitions. I am planning to participate in a new global group exhibition in 2025.
